

HK

Vegetarian,
turn to p. 14

Cha Siu Challenge

Dining editor Johannes Pong talked to local foodies, Word of Mouth editor Fergus Fung and food blogger Chaxiubao, to come up with the top five cha siu places.

Joy Hing

A long queue of the patient and the faithful wait daily here for what many claim to be "the best cha siu in the world," perfectly caramelized and accompanied by special sweet soy sauce.

265-267 Hennessy Rd., Wan Chai, 2519-6639.

West Villa

This classic old-school Cantonese restaurant serves the most melt-in-your-mouth fluffy barbecued pork.

1/F, Lee Garden Two, Causeway Bay, 2882-2110.

The Manor Restaurant

Their barbecued pork comes in a slightly different format, baked in a clay pot with a gooey honey sauce.

440 Jaffe Rd., Causeway Bay, 2836-9999.

Cuisine Cuisine

This majestically designed modern Chinese restaurant serves traditional Cantonese dishes with a contemporary twist. Their cha siu is refined and classically delish.

Podium 3, IFC Mall, 8 Finance St., Central, 2393-3933.

Dynasty

Besides the dim sum, this restaurant is famous for its cha siu with big, meaty portions.

Level 4, Renaissance Kowloon Hotel, 22 Salisbury Rd., Tsim Sha Tsui, 2734-6600.